

The Position

Pacific Ridge School seeks an engaging, passionate, and collaborative teacher of mathematics. Well-qualified candidates will have strong content and pedagogical knowledge, a commitment to ongoing professional learning and growth, enthusiasm for student-centered instruction in Harkness classrooms, and a readiness to support the school's signature Global Education Program by chaperoning a year-end, domestic or international trip. Collaboration is a core element of the professional experience at Pacific Ridge School. We seek candidates who are excited to work on grade-level, departmental, and co-teaching teams. Outside of the classroom, this full-time position will contribute to the co-curricular program by advising a group of students as well as leading a club, service learning group, or affinity group.

Mission Statement

In a community that fosters academic excellence, ethical responsibility, and global engagement, Pacific Ridge School prepares students for college and a purposeful life.

Diversity Statement

As a community that is committed to valuing and supporting all identities and experiences, Pacific Ridge School strives to foster inclusivity and equity to prepare students for life in a diverse society.
